

So your project might be closing...

RCMs goals

- Embed open, inclusive and reproducible research practices
- Ensure a shared understanding of goals, roadmap, processes
- Facilitate stakeholder engagement and collaboration
- Provide technical support and domain expertise
- Co-create, maintain and communicate project resources
- Amplify and champion community learnings and achievements

Remember to work with project managers on archiving documentation. They may be interested in similar documents (e.g. finance reports), but there interest will be different to the goals of RCM work
